“We were looking for a partner to help us bring Bob Ross’s story to life. Taylor Studios was the truest definition of a partner, resulting in a high quality product and a top-notch experience for our visitors.”

Jessica D. Jenkins

VP of Collections & Storytelling, Minnetrista Museum and Gardens

“Taylor Studios completed our project on time and on budget. They were great to work with – always responsive and attentive to our requests and the project needs. It was a delight to work with a team that was just as excited about our project as we were, and the result was superlative!”

Cate McCaffrey

City Manager, City of Homestead, Florida

“The Taylor Way is an awesome, professional, timely and creative experience. They keep a great attitude as you go through the process with them. We are on our fourth project with Taylor Studios and we hope to do more with their team in the future.”
